

COTTONWOOD BASKETBALL

Jan. 22 – Cottonwood 41, Skyline 40

Story of the game: The “Cardiac Kids” did it again. This time, Tim Glenn hit a magical three-point basket at the buzzer to cap a huge Cottonwood comeback as the Colts edged Skyline in a Region 2 game.

Cottonwood's highlights: The Colts trailed the entire game, and faced a 37-27 deficit going into the final period. Cottonwood held Skyline to just three points in the last eight minutes. Korbin Dooley was the team's top scorer with 11 points.

Skyline's highlights: The Eagles had this game, but didn't put it away. Jaden Jackson led Skyline with 17 points, while Brian Orr and Mike Staes had six each.

Statistical notes: Skyline didn't have a field goal in the fourth quarter, and made 3-5 free throws. Rollin Carter had eight points, and all came in the second half. Skyline would eventually finish 8-4 in region, and three of their losses were by two points or less.

What we learned from this game: Glenn's shot came from well beyond the three-point line. This was the season highlight for him and a huge victory over the Colts, who improved to 3-1 in the Region standings. Cottonwood is developing a habit of winning close ones.

Jan. 26 – Cottonwood 51, Hunter 37

Story of the game: Korbin Dooley scored 16 points and Rollin Carter had 15 as Cottonwood broke free in the fourth quarter and beat Hunter for its fourth straight Region 2 victory.

Cottonwood's best moment: The Colts won with defense, holding Hunter to single digits in the second and third quarters to take a five-point lead. Dooley helped break the game open with a pair of three-pointers in the final period.

Hunter's best moment: Where is Hunter's offense? The Wolverines were held to less than 40 points for the fifth straight game. They played well in the first quarter, taking a 14-9 lead. Austin Hernandez and Brandon Peterson had eight points each.

Statistical notes: This was Cottonwood's best defensive effort this season. Cottonwood outscored Hunter 20-11 in the fourth period and moved above .500 for the first time. Tim Glenn had seven points, and all came after halftime. Hunter didn't try to foul much late in the game, but the Colts still hit 4-5 free throws in the final period.

What we learned from this game: The Colts found momentum in the final period once again and moved into sole possession of second place. Not bad for a team that was 3-6 just a few weeks ago.
