

COTTONWOOD BASKETBALL: Game-by-game results

Date	Opponent	W/L	Score
Nov. 24	at Taylorsville	W	56-53

Raymond Chavez scored 17 points, and led Cottonwood's outside shooting effort, as the Colts held for the win. Chavez had three treys, and led the team's 9-16 effort on three-pointers. Tim Glenn also had a key basket near the end.

Dec. 1	OLYMPUS	L	46-67
---------------	----------------	----------	--------------

Korbin Dooley scored 14 points, but the Colts fell behind early and couldn't muster enough three-point shooting success to mount a comeback.

Dec. 4	at Hillcrest	L	46-62
---------------	---------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts trailed just 38-34 going into the fourth period. Dooley had 16 points and Chavez bounced back with a nice game – scoring 11. The Huskies had a big advantage at the free-throw line.

Dec. 8	HIGHLAND	W	43-38
---------------	-----------------	----------	--------------

Tim Glenn scored 12 points and Dooley had 11 as the Colts held Highland scoreless in the second period and downed the Rams in a physical battle that came down to the final seconds.

Dec. 18	at West Jordan	L	44-67
----------------	-----------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts came off a 10-day break and, after a good first half, couldn't keep up the defending 5A champions. Jason Lundquist was the leading scorer for the only time all season with 11 points.

Dec. 30	BOUNTIFUL	W	59-52
----------------	------------------	----------	--------------

Cottonwood took on 4A power over the Christmas break, and Dooley and Daniel Kristensen scored 12 points apiece in the big win. Dooley and Chavez shot well from outside and the Colts hung on in the final quarter.

Jan. 2	vs. Jordan	L	49-58
---------------	-------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts took on Jordan at Energy Solutions Arena. The hard-fought game was tied going into the final period. Rollin Carter led with 13 points and nine different players can now brag they scored on the Jazz's home court.

Jan. 6	at Kearns	L	46-54
---------------	------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts took a 26-22 lead into halftime, but then lost it. Carter was the top scorer with 11 points.

Jan. 12	MURRAY*	L	40-44
----------------	----------------	----------	--------------

Welcome to Region 2. The Colts dropped their region opener to rival Murray on their home floor. Cottonwood led going into the final quarter, but Kristensen fouled out late and the Spartans dominated inside.

Jan. 15	at Granger*	W	83-75 (2 OT)
----------------	--------------------	----------	---------------------

Many Colts called this their favorite game. Dooley scored 20 points, Kristensen 15 and Carter 14 as Cottonwood finally pulled away in their longest game of the season. This might have been one of the best games in Utah all year.

Jan. 19	CYPRUS*	W	65-61
----------------	----------------	----------	--------------

Carter had another good game with 16 points and helped the Colts dominate the second quarter. Dooley added 14 and Kristensen 12 as Cottonwood held off the Pirates' comeback.

COTTONWOOD BASKETBALL: Game-by-game results

Date	Opponent	W/L	Score
Jan. 22	at Skyline*	W	41-40

Glenn nailed his biggest shot of the season, a three-pointer from about 30 feet, as the final buzzer sounded to help Cottonwood celebrate another close victory. Dooley helped make it possible with his fourth-quarter play.

Jan. 27	HUNTER*	W	52-37
----------------	----------------	----------	--------------

Dooley scored 16 points and Carter had 15 as the Colts broke open a tight game in the fourth quarter to win their fourth straight. At this point, the Colts are playing their best and geared up for a region title showdown.

Jan. 29	at West*	L	41-53
----------------	-----------------	----------	--------------

With most of the local media watching, the Colts rally from a 19-point deficit to cut the margin to three points early in the fourth quarter. Arlen Smith led the way with 12 points.

Feb. 5	at Murray*	L	35-42
---------------	-------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts started slowly, and couldn't catch up. Kristensen had nine points and Dooley eight, but the team's poor shooting resulted in their lowest offensive output of the season.

Feb. 9	GRANGER*	W	69-45
---------------	-----------------	----------	--------------

Glenn and Parker Vassau scored 12 points apiece as Cottonwood got its shooting back and poured it from the start. Dooley and Smith added 11 each and the Colts' outside shooters nailed nine three-pointers.

Feb. 12	at Cyprus*	L	47-58
----------------	-------------------	----------	--------------

The Colts traveled to Cyprus and ran into an energized Pirates' team, which used this win to clinch the region's final playoff spot. This was a disappointing loss, but Vlad Malugin came off the bench and had a big game.

Feb. 16	SKYLINE*	L	51-60
----------------	-----------------	----------	--------------

Cottonwood fell behind early, but Dooley, Malugin and Kristensen led a second-half rally only to be shot down by Skyline's Jaden Jackson, who had a career-best night.

Feb. 19	at Hunter*	W	70-63
----------------	-------------------	----------	--------------

Dooley had the best game of his career, scoring 32 points in this pivotal game. Vassau and Malugin continued their stellar play off the bench, too, with 15 and 12 points.

Feb. 23	WEST*	W	61-46
----------------	--------------	----------	--------------

The Colts played their best game of the season. Glenn, Dooley and Vassau scored in double figures and helped Cottonwood celebrate "Senior Night" with this impressive win. The Colts jumped to a 12-2 lead and went into the 5A state tournament on a high note by ending West's 17-game winning streak.

Feb. 27	JORDAN#	L	49-52
----------------	----------------	----------	--------------

In the 5A state tourney, the Colts hosted an opening-round game. After trailing most of the way, Dooley, Vassau and Carter hit timely baskets. Cottonwood had a chance to win, but Jordan didn't let Chavez get off a decent shot in the final seconds and that ended the team's season with a 10-11 record.