

Ben Zanolli defends an inbounds pass with his wide wing span.

Jan. 8 – Judge Memorial 68, Morgan 63

Story of the game: Will Whitt scored 18 points and Zach Myaer had 17, including nine in the pivotal fourth quarter, as Judge rallied to beat Morgan in both team's Region 11 opener.

Judge's highlights: The Bulldogs trailed 46-44 going into the final period, but Myaer hit three quick baskets and Judge got most of its remaining points from the free-throw line. Judge was 15-21 from the FT line in the final period.

Morgan's highlights: The Trojans stayed right with Judge behind Braden Saunders' 20 points and their usual vocal home crowd. Saunders and Matt Largent hit big threes late in the game, but it wasn't enough.

Statistical notes: Whitt, Myaer, Daniel Shiramizu and Basil Vetas played huge roles late in the game and each finished in double figures. Collin Lawless also had a good game with eight points.

What we learned from this game: Judge started the region season by playing in a tough environment, and came through at the end.
