

OLYMPUS BASKETBALL

OLYMPUS BASKETBALL is about tradition.

Since 1953, Oly students have been building memories, and the school's gym has been the site of many of them.

Oly's gym is unlike any other. It's old, and its 84-foot length makes it 10 feet shorter than everybody else's.

Since coach Matt Barnes took over in 1998, the home team's record has been 115-18.

The old place won't be much around longer. The entire school is scheduled to be replaced by a new facility in the next 1-2 years.

When that happens, it will be the end of an era.

Oly's student fans prepare for Will Watkins in a time-honored tradition of jumping into the crowd